

Washtenaw Coordinated Funders Brand Identity Guidelines with Brand Architecture

Brandmark:

Unacceptable uses

The consistent and correct application of the Washtenaw Coordinated Funders (WCF) branding is essential. Always follow the standards presented in these guidelines. The examples on this page illustrate some of the unacceptable uses of the branding.

Note:

Never attempt to redraw or rescale the elements of the brandmark or add other graphic elements to its presentation. Do not extract any of the graphic elements contained in the brandmark to use separately. See exceptions for video, animation and interactive on page 4.11.

Never substitute type in the brandmark

Never alter the colors in the brandmark

Never separate the symbols from the WCF name

Never put other words or phrases inside the brandmark

Never extract the words "Washtenaw Coordinated Funders" from the brandmark

Never tilt the brandmark

Never distort the shape of the brandmark

Never alter the shape of the brandmark in any way

Never add elements inside the brandmark

Never extract any of the graphic elements contained in the brandmark to use separately

Never add elements over the brandmark

Never rearrange the elements of the brandmark

Never reverse the brandmark to white
